If you want individualized attention this service is clearly built upon it. They don't send your project out to an 'unknown writer.' She delivers just that and so much more. She was meticulous in asking the right questions and breaking down a beginning lengthy resume into smaller pieces that more clearly told a story of my experiences and value I can offer. My resume and LinkedIn profile is already seeing success with increased job interviews. I highly recommend them.

If you are looking to build your personal brand, enhance your LinkedIn profile or just need a professional writer to assist you with a project look no further than Carla Deter. Carla was an absolute pleasure to work with, was very responsive and took a valued interest in our project. I have referred Carla out to a number of friends and will continue to do so. Thanks!

It's taken me some time to get this review up as I used this service over a year ago. I was on a new job search hunt and didn't know where to turn. All I can say is the LinkedIn profile created by this service received so many hits from recruiters and connections that I had several job offers in two weeks. I really appreciate their work.

I'm an IT geek. I'm the first to admit and LinkedIn is still a bit confusing for me. My writer provided me with a Word document of exactly the content to be included in each section of my profile. During our consult call she also expertly explained the importance of each section of how each play a part in being found. I landed a new position within 3 months after my new profile. Thanks!

Carla reviewed and helped me create a new LinkedIn profile. She did an excellent job, addressing various details and, in the end, issued a great result. It was a pleasure working with her, a communicative person that delivered quality and timely results. I highly recommend the service.

Carla was able to provide me with a broad perspective on how to view my career and translate that into accomplishments. What would otherwise perhaps had been a myopic view was enhanced by Carla's perspective. I would highly recommend her for her professional services.

They certainly know their way around LinkedIn. They were open to let me know how important each section was to be found by recruiters and hiring managers but I didn't have time to work up my own profile. I hired them to develop a new profile for me and my views have increased 100% since.

My profile views have significantly increased since Carla worked her magic! They take the time to get to know you and your goals before building a writing project. She (Carla) was professional and personable during the process and delivered as promised. There is no doubt she has an understanding of the market as a writer. I would highly recommend others to work with her and see for yourself the transformation she can bring to professional branding.

It had been years since I updated my resume so there was much work to do. They collected all the information and developed a visibly appealing resume full of my expertise as an accountant. I feel confident now sending it out! Thanks so much!

I'll be graduating from college in September and wanted to get my resume and LinkedIn profile ready for job search. They asked many questions and prepared great materials. All I have to do is update upon graduation. Thanks so much!

I recently worked with this service to update my resume and do a complete makeover of my LinkedIn profile for a new job search. My profile was next to nothing. I am very pleased of the outcome and am already getting interviews. Thanks!

Very rarely do I do online reviews but after working with this company I had to. As an IT operations manager for the past 12 years I found myself seeking a new position either with another company on an upward position within my company. I hadn't needed my resume or profile updated in a while. They reviewed all of my materials and although it took some time (I was delayed getting the questionnaire back) I can now say I'm ready for the next step in my career if I decide. Thanks for all of your work.

I plan to relocate back to the state's (Washington, D.C.) in the summer of 2018 and hired them to update my resume and LinkedIn profile. So far so good. I've received a number of reach outs from recruiters for just the jobs I am looking for.

The writer did a great job on my resume and cover letter. I've yet to set up a LinkedIn account and will definitely reach out to this service soon to get started. They even provided (at no additional cost) some strategy checklists to using LinkedIn. The material will definitely come in handy. Thanks for working with me and getting the job done.
